Warſaw, Sept. 5. N. S.

OUR laſt Letters from Lemberg give an Account, That the King of Poland has appointed the Sieur Marachowsky, Palatine of Poſen, to be his Ambaſſador and Plenipotentiary for the Treaty of Peace with the Turks, who is accordingly preparing for his Journey. The King intends to go in few days to Halitz, the General Rendezvous of his Army, to which place the Forces are marching in the mean time; and the Train of heavy Artillery, with ſeveral Mortars, and a great quantity of Bombs and Carcaſſes, is ſent thither from Lemberg; which gives an occaſion to think, that the King intends to Bombard Caminieck, in caſe the Weather will not admit of a formal Siege. It's much diſcourſed, that the Army will take their Winter-Quarters in Moldavia and Valachia, at once to eaſe the Kingdom of Poland, and to defend thoſe Provinces, which, were they ſecured from the Ravages they are threatned with by the Turks and Tartars, in caſe they quit their Subjection to them, would ſoon put themſelves under the Protection of this Crown; and 'tis ſaid, the Crown-Treaſurer will be ſent to the Princes of Moldavia and Valachia to adjuſt this Affair with them; and if this Project goes on, it's talked that the King will continue during the Winter in Ruſland, and will call a Diet at Lemberg. They write from the Frontiers, that a ſtrong Party of the Gariſon of Caminieck came lately by night, and took away ſome Cattel near Trinity Fort; the Gariſon whereof was drawn up in order to purſue them, but it was not thought convenient to do it in the night time for fear of a Surpriſe, ſo the Enemy had the leiſure to get away with their Booty.

We have an Account from Lithuania, That purſuant to the Agreement made here in July laſt, between Prince Sapieha and his Adherents on the one part, and the Sieur Oginsky's Deputies in behalf of himſelf and the diſcontented Gentlemen of Lithuania on the other; the leſſer Diets of that Dutchy met, and choſe their Repreſentatives, who had a General Meeting at Wilda, where it was expected they would have approved and confirmed the ſaid Agreement, as tending to ſecure the future Peace and Quiet of that Country. But on the contrary, the firſt thing they did was to Proteſt unanimouſly againſt the ſame, as prejudicial to their Rights and Liberties, declaring, That the Deputies of Oginsky had acted contrary to their Powers and Inſtructions; and that a particular Party ſending their Deputies to accommodate a private Quarrel, had no Right to give them Power to make a Treaty, the Contents of which concern the whole Dutchy; after which they agreed on a Sum of Money to be raiſed in the ſeveral Weywoodſhips for the Subſiſtence of the Army of Lithuania, and reſolved to meet again in a General Dyet at Grodno on the 15th of October next, to make a full Settlement of the Affairs of that Country; In the mean time the diſcontented Party continue in Arms under the Command of one Zaranska, whom they have choſen to be their Leader in the Room of the Sieur Oginsky.

Vienna, Sept. 10. The Imperial Court is gone to Eberſdorf, to paſs a few days there. The Conferences between the Emperor's Miniſters, and thoſe of Poland, Venice, and Muſcovy, touching the Negociations of Peace, are continued, and a great Progreſs has been made in this Affair. The Emperor's Plenipotentiaries will ſet out in few days for the Place of Treaty, where they expect to meet one from the King of Poland, who will go thither by the way of Tranſilvania. The Heer Hop, Envoy Extraordinary from the States-General, arrived here the 6th Inſtant, and has had Audience of his Imperial Majeſty. Admiral Aſſemberg will go hence in 2 or 3 days to command the Fleet on the Danube. Some new-raiſed Companies are ſent from hence by water to Hungary, to be incorporated into the Regiment of Thierheim. Our laſt Advices from the Army, which are of the 2d of this month, ſay, That on the 31ſt paſt they left Kobila, and paſſing over the Moraſs of Villowar, encamped near Titul, the next day was employed in making a Bridge over the Theyſſe, and the day theſe Letters came away they deſigned to have paſſed that River, but there fell a great quantity of Rain in the night, which ſo ſwelled the ſame, that their Bridge proved by much too ſhort, and this delayed their farther march. General Palfi, who went ſome days before with a Party of 1400 Horſe to make an Incurſion towards Temeſwaer, was not yet returned. But a Party of Huſſars had brought in a Captain of the Artillery, and ſome other Turks belonging to the Gariſon of that place, whom they had made Priſoners near Banzoua; The ſaid Captain was diſpatched to Belgrade by the Governor of Temeſwaer, to deſire a Supply of Money and Proviſions; He ſaid, the Gariſon was 12000 Men ſtrong, under the Command of 7 Baſſa's, and had about 72 Pieces of Cannon; and that the late great Rains had filled the Ditches of that place with Water. We have no freſher Advice of the Motions of the Turkiſh Army, than what you had an Account of in our laſt. They write from Tranſilvania, that a Conſpiracy has been diſcovered of ſome Soldiers quarrered in that Country, who had agreed to kill their Officers; but the Execution of their Deſign being timely prevented, the principal Authors thereof were ſeized, and had ſuffered exemplary Puniſhment.

Francfort, Sept. 17. The Sieur Obrecht is expected here towards the beginning of the next Month, being appointed by the French King to confer with the Heer Zachman, the Elector Palatine's Miniſter, touching the Pretenſions of the Dutcheſs of Orleans. Several Recruits were ſent from hence ſome days ago to the Imperial Army in Hungary. We hear from Strasbourg, that the French have taken another Review of that Gariſon, and have diſbanded four Men more out of each Company.
